

1 CREATE A MANIFESTOR LEARNING GROUP

BECOME A MANIFESTOR QUICKER WITH YOUR FRIENDS

There's a huge amount of learning available online today. You can study a university degree for free, and yet less than 10% of people actually complete them. The reason? Simple. For many, studying in solitude is hard work and they learn faster in a social environment. When you study online, 10% of your growth comes from watching the content, 70% from applying what you learn, and 20% happens by sharing the journey with others. So a really great way to become a manifestor is to create a social learning group with friends, where you can meet, watch the movies and learn together as a tribe.

HOW TO CREATE A MANIFESTOR LEARNING GROUP

- 1 Think about 3 or more friends who are interested in self development that would benefit from this program.
- 2 Go to the 'learn with friends' / 'my program' pages and either send them an email or share a post on social media.
- 3 Book in weekly learning groups to watch the movies, work through the tools and support each other to become manifestors together.
- 4 Apply yourself to transform your life in between each learning group, then bring your progress and challenges to share the following week.
- 5 You're also helping people in developing countries too (see overleaf).
- 6 Ask your friends to sign up using the link on the email/post so we know they're your friend (see overleaf about why this matters).

Learn the way of the manifestor together with your friends.

THEIR DREAM

EVERY TIME A FRIEND

SOCIAL MEDIA POSTS,
I LOAN $25 TO IMPROVE
A COMMUNITY PROGRAM OR SMALL BUSINESS

I love supporting people to live well. And although not everyone is born with equal opportunities, it doesn't mean they don't want to improve their lives. It simply means that 'living well' might entail finding ways to feed their family next week, or get clean drinking water. I'm supporting an amazing crowd funding initiative called KIVA, to provide loans that empower less fortunate people to achieve amazing results. How it works is simple. Every time a friend of yours signs up to manifestor, using the link on your social posts or emails, I give a $25 microloan to someone in a developing country who is seeking funds to develop their business or community program.

YOU CAN EMPOWER PEOPLE IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

- 1 For every friend who signs up to manifestor, I lend $25 to a borrower on kiva.
- 2 Every $25 loan helps develop a business which improves lives and communities.
- 3 It's a loan, so they pay the money back as their business grows. In turn they become independently successful, and no longer rely on handouts.
- 4 Whilst you learn to become manifestors, you are simultaneously empowering people in developing countries to fulfill their potential.
- 5 You can read their positive stories in our newsletter each month and see which programs we support at www.kiva.org/team/manifestor
- 6 Get your friends to use the link on your email or social post as this notifies us to make a loan when they sign up.
